ABOUT WILD SPLENDOR

Columbia Land Trust has been working to protect the mosaic of lands, waters, and wildlife of the Pacific Northwest for over 27 years. To date, we have conserved over 32,000 acres across the Columbia River region, spanning rivers and wetlands, backyard habitats and vast forests.

As our region faces a rapidly growing population, a changing climate, and habitat loss, we are determined to continue our conservation efforts – fearlessly. In order to continue the crucial conservation work Columbia Land Trust is known for, we host our annual gala and largest fundraiser, Wild Splendor.

Wild Splendor gathers over 300 individual supporters and corporate sponsors. Attendees enjoy exciting auctions, an inspiring program including the premiere of our annual film, and a delicious family-style dinner.

Last year, Wild Splendor raised a record-breaking $297,000 for our conservation and restoration work in the Columbia River region. In 2018, we hope to break the $300,000 mark. Your support as a corporate sponsor can help us reach this ambitious goal and in turn help highlight your organization as a fearless supporter of Northwest conservation.
